BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET THURSDAY, MAY 6

The monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society will be held on Thursday evening, May 6, in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House, beginning at 7:30. As this will be "Collectibles Night" anyone attending is requested to bring one or two items from their collection. Collecting has become an American passion and almost everyone collects something, be it thimbles, horse shoes, grave stone rubbings or first editions of books. The purpose of the program is to allow those willing to share a piece of their collection with others. This program has been popular in other historical societies throughout the nation and it is hoped that this will be the beginning of a tradition at the Bethel Society.

Following the exhibition and discussion of the collectibles, the program will also feature a short film "Archeology in New Hampshire: The Weirs Site" which focuses on recent archeological work in the Lake Winnepesaukee region, an area less than two driving hours from Bethel.

As is always the case with Bethel Historical Society meetings, they are open to anyone interested. Refreshments will follow the meeting.

SPECIAL FORCES TO TRAIN ON WHITE MT. NATIONAL FOREST IN LATE JULY

Army Reserve Special Forces Teams, supported by Civil Affairs, Transportation, and Medical Units, will begin a field training exercise called "Golden Eagle" throughout the White Mountain National Forest in Maine and New Hampshire as part of their two weeks of annual training scheduled for July 17 through 31.

The operational area, with its rugged and woody terrain, has been invaded by hostile Opposing Forces (OPFOR). Army Reserve Green Beret teams will parachute into the occupied territory to carry out assorted assigned missions designed to hinder or delay the OPFOR.

The mock battle will commence on July 20 when the first of 17 "A" teams jump into their areas throughout Coos, Grafton, and Carroll Counties in New Hampshire and Oxford County, Maine. The teams will be re-supplied while they are in the field and are expected to exfiltrate July 29.

A Special Forces "A" team consists of 10 enlisted men and two officers, each an expert in such specialties as operations, intelligence, communications, demolitions, weapons, and medicine. All members are parachute qualified and are frequently trained in SCUBA diving, mountaineering, reconnaissance, and high Altitude-Low Opening (HALO) parachute operations.

The 11th Special Forces Group (Airborne), headquartered at Ft. Meade, Md., has separate units located as far south as Coral Gables, Fla., east to Columbus, Ohio, and north to Fort Devens, Mass. The OPFOR will be made up of Active Army soldiers stationed at Ft. Devens, Mass.

The main headquarters for the exercise, called a Special Forces Operational Base, will be located at Ft. Devens, about 88 miles west of Boston, with a secondary headquarters in Gorham, N.H., in the northern section of the National Forest.

Northwest Bethel

— Clarice Gibson, Corres. —

Spring was in full bloom Sunday as the temperatures got up into the 70's and clear sky. It was a time of cleaning up, raking, and carrying off those branches that had broken off either in the winds or because of the heavy snows. There are, however, still spots covered with snow to do another day.

My aunt, Marion Wilson, Lawrence, Mass., rode down with her daughter, Shirley Petzold, Andover, Mass., and they spent the night Monday. Tuesday they drove down to see my folks, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, Norway. Shirley drove back to spend Tuesday night and Aunt Marion stayed with the folks. Shirley is my nearest age cousin (six months) and as she has two boys about my oldest two's age, we can always have a good time catching up on news or is it gossip.

The river was, and is, swollen due to the snow melting above. I love to stand on the bank and hear it gurgling as it travels. It has been an easy spring as far as river ice going out. I don't like it when it is an angry river and goes through banging and slamming its way down through; but what a soothing sound as it gently murmurs and gurgles its way.

Evelyn Hibborn and Judy Coolidge went to Auburn shopping Wednesday and then shopping in Portland where they also ate dinner.

Thursday, Bertha Flanders, Locke Mills, Kay McAllister and Frances Farnum, Bryant Pond, came for a pre-birthday dinner for Evelyn. The ladies brought dinner, two cakes, plus other goodies and gifts. After dinner the four ladies and dog, Friday, went to Gorham, N.H. Today, Evelyn and Toby, picked up Bertha Flanders and they had a pleasant afternoon riding around.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shimamura left April 17 for Hempstead, N.H., to visit Gerry's mother, Thelma Merrill, and uncle, Leland Bond. All four went to Concord, N.H., Sunday, to visit other relatives. Joe and Gerry left Monday and stopped at Pittsfield, N.H., and visited her uncle, Walter Bond, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hannon and two girls spent April 16-20 in New Hampshire. They visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hannon, Durham, N.H., and her mother, Lucien Belanger, Portsmouth, N.H.

Daniel Hannon has started coaching baseball practice at Middle School.

Sharon Kimball, Waterford, spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Benson.

Sunday, Teddy, Carol, Wendy, and Chris Benson, Augusta, and Bradley and Fern Benson, Poland, came for dinner and also painted their parents', Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson's living room.

Pat Anderson took Bill and Mary Gross, and Steve's Aunt Elizabeth, to the Billy Graham Crusade in Portland, Sunday. They stopped on the way home for a lunch in Norway.

Debbie Seames had a double birthday celebration for her children, Dawn's 6th, and Ryan's 4th. Also attending, brother Rusty, grandparents, and Melinda Mason.

Debbie made Dawn a Panda bear cake and Ryan a choo choo cake. Sue Laban, Matthew, Christopher and Amy, visited Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Casey, Reading, Mass., April 19 to 22.

Dick, Sue, Kristy and Timmy Angevine went to Rumford for supper Sunday. Ricky Angevine and Brent Douglass flew to New Mexico, the 20th, to visit his sister, Sheri, and aunt Barbara and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lapham had Mr. and Mrs. William Helm of Andover visit Saturday, and Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Doyen, Songo, Pond, Jessie Gilmore and daughter, Jean, Rumford.

Melinda Mason took Mrs. Leslie Lapham to the Methodist Church service, Sunday.

Melinda Mason went to her sisters, Terry and Lee Blake and Beth, Thursday to Saturday. Saturday Chuckie, Kathie Mason, and three children, and Terry, Lee, Beth Blake, and Melinda Mason, all went to the Shrine Circus in Lewiston. Melinda came home with Chuckie and family.

April 18, Geneva McCoy, Sally Bodwell and Carolyn Osgood went to a convention at the Downtown Holiday Inn, Portland.

While in Florida, Sam and Ginny McCoy also visited Lina Reynolds at Lake Wales.

George Gibson left after work Friday to visit Jim and Sue, North Reading, Mass. He stopped at his Aunt Bobby and Eddie Pevear's and Grammie Gibson's for dinner.

Frankie and Theresa Gibson came for dinner and visit Thursday.

I am once again chairwoman for Bethel M. S. campaign. Anyone willing to help on this please call 836-2792. I realize that one campaign only gets over when another has begun.

Bob and Linda Howe have returned from a 16-day visit in Europe. Three days were spent in Florence, Italy, visiting many cathedrals and museums; one day in Pisa, Italy, and one day at Montecarlo on the French Riviera. The remaining days were spent touring Switzerland and skiing in the Swiss Alps at the Jungfrau - Region a mountain range at 13,499 feet. While in Switzerland they were guests of Linda's cousin, Grace DeComier and had the opportunity to meet a warm and hospitable Swiss family the Techantre of Biemme/Biel. Linda also said that the flowers were beautiful and they had lovely weather every day.

Dr. and Mrs. Shaw went to the Rotary mud dance at Bethel Inn Saturday night. Sunday callers at Shaws were Andy Davis, Pat Auger and Mike Davis.

A true Spring day as I sit and watch the Red Sox and jot a few items. In just two weeks the snow is literally all gone, and planting is in, or being done. Our garden will be much smaller this year than last, as the freezers do not empty too fast.

Mrs. Blanche Ridley and son, Merrill, Norway, who were former residents here, are now making their home at Chapel Valley boarding home, in West Paris. I haven't called on them yet, but I will soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett White, Merrimac, Mass., came Sunday for their three children and his mother and Mrs. Harold Vatcher went to Saugus, Mass., to be with her youngest daughter to await the arrival of a new baby.

Joe and Evaline Vatcher went to Bethel on business Tuesday, so they made a door yard call on Mrs. Ethel McKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. James Knights. We saw many ladies out raking their yards. We looked for the geese and ducks in back of Jordan's Restaurant, but they were not out. Mr. Buckman said he kept them in the pen for the first few days. We miss them as they always greeted us when we came into the yard and were always hungry. Every day they took a stroll up the road, but would come right back if we called to them or rapped on the window. Kids like the road.

Every morning for the past week two nice plump robins appear on our front lawn as we eat our breakfast. I wonder what they find to eat.

Mrs. Susan Lyons is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Buntin, Bedford, Mass.

Callers at Lawrence's: Sandra Coffin, Jeff and Jimbo, Mrs. Dwight Oldham and Mrs. Bessie McGuire, West Peru. Bessie is a former Pinhook lass. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Card, Lloyd Huntley, Ruby Coffin, Sylvia Cummings, Dale Coffin, Rose Hill, Dorchester, Mass.

Many attended the shows at West Paris Gym on Friday and Saturday evenings and they played to a full house on both nights.

I don't understand how Fred Judkins of Upton, can stay in Florida all the Spring when we are having such beautiful weather here in Maine. He had better hurry home to get the garden going so to fill the freezer for next winter. Maybe he is waiting for the grass to get high enough to mow.

The North Paris Community Club will hold their first meeting at the hall on May 5, Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. Election of officers. Let's go.

It seems good to use the front glassed in porch for the ball games and news after being cooped up in the living room all winter. Spring is really here and we enjoy it. The students really enjoyed their vacation.

Hill to Eva Yates, are you enjoying our lovely days?

Middle Intervale Cemetery Association will meet at the home of Robert Stevens at 7 p. m., Wednesday, May 5, 1982. Everyone welcome.

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

What a change has taken place since I wrote last week! Out of the warmth and sunshine has come full blown spring, then summer: buds, blossoms, eggs, birds, caterpillars and butterflies.

I've been raking leaves from my gardens, dragging branches to the brush pile and enjoying the pastel pink and yellow of the mountains; faint, yet there. In the distance was the voice of the brook talking, laughing, scolding at me. A brook is especially responsive to the season, as it lends its friendly voice to the valley.

So many of the birds have returned. One of the most melodious is the purple finch and with a flock, as we have, pouring their gushing, ecstatic warbles from tree tops make them a favorite.

It was nearing dusk leading the old day down the stairs of time, after the warmth, when I took my flashlight and walked up the driveway. On my return a bird flew up close to me. I instantly knew it was a woodcock. I have seen and heard them often, giving their nasal "peent". I first heard this sound then in seconds there followed the winnowing sound, a whistle, as he rose in a wide climbing curve against the light of the sky. The whistle of the woodcock's ascent is caused by special wing feathers, cutting through the air. He went up and up, then suddenly plunged in a vertical descent to the lawn ahead of me. The time of his appearance is a wonderful time of spring's beginning.

On my walks there have been many new things: the frozen pond opening a big blue eye to take a peek at spring, while the water borrows beauty from the sky, tree swallows back from the southland swooping over the water, winging ducks driving a wedge against the sky, and the mountains dressed in purple robes. Is there an instant of the true realization that this IS spring? We don't know; except the moment is a very happy mystery and a time of joy. But we DO know it always comes and gives us that heart-lifting moment.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION: REINVESTING IN AMERICA'S PAST

Preservation Week * May 9-15, 1982
National Trust for Historic Preservation

"Historic Preservation: Reinvesting in America's Past" has been proclaimed as the theme for National Historic Preservation Week, May 9-15, 1982 by the Bethel Historical Society and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. The purpose of Preservation Week is to foster awareness of the financial, as well as cultural, social and community design benefits of reinvesting in historic buildings. Over 3,000 preservation groups are expected to simultaneously hold events honoring outstanding efforts in their cities and communities.

In recognition of National Historic Preservation Week the Bethel Historical Society has placed in the town office window a scale model of Broad Street and the Common as it looked about 1880. This should serve as a reminder of Bethel's distinguished architectural heritage and the need to preserve the built environment throughout the town. The model was designed and assembled several years ago by members of the Society's Education and Research Committee and was recently refurbished by Catherine Newell who was instrumental in its original construction.

The theme for the tenth annual observance of Preservation Week was chosen to reflect the value of historic buildings as economic as well as cultural resources. The new rehabilitation tax incentives in the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981 make this theme particularly appropriate for 1982. The Tax Act eliminates a 10-year bias in favor of new construction and replaces it with generous tax incentives for rehabilitation. The new laws provide faster depreciation of rehabilitation expenses, allowing reimbursement the same year.

The Bethel Historical Society is a member of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, a non-profit membership organization dedicated to preserving and reusing architecturally and culturally significant buildings, district sites and objects.

"BREEZE" ALL GIRL BAND TO CELEBRATE OPENING OF INN'S MILL, BROOK TAVERN

"Breeze" an all girl band will celebrate the opening of Mill Brook Tavern at the Bethel Inn, April 30 and May 1.

When most people hear there is an all girl band around they immediately think of the national group, "The Go Go's", and with "Breeze", they are partially right. But not only will they hear music by the Go Go's, but also a bit of Linda Ronstadt, Carly Simon, Maxine Nightingale, Olivia Newton-John, Donna Summer, Ann Murray and more. But wait, "Breeze" can also do material by such male artists and groups like Elvis Presley, Nick Gelder, Foreigner, Quarterflash, Blondie, BTO and much, much more.

This is a group comprised of five young ladies ranging in ages of 17 and 18 years old, doing what they do best, playing music that pleases everyone. "Breeze" has been together for a little over three years and in that three years they have been providing music for adult parties, weddings, anniversaries, etc., and doing very well in their specialized kind of music. They prefer this type of engagement rather than playing for schools and such, although they could handle it well.

The group is comprised of Cindy Blouin, rhythm guitarist; Judy Beaudoin as lead vocalist; Maureen Vaillancourt on drums; Sheila Richards on keyboards, and Bridgit Bussier on bass guitar. All are very talented and all want to please with their music, to make a special event even more so.

TELSTAR MIDDLE SCHOOL

The following student writings are examples of Haiku's written by 7th graders in Mr. Durgin's English Class.

A Haiku is a special kind of poem developed in Japan. A Haiku must have exactly 17 syllables. The syllables must be distributed into three lines—five syllables in the first line, seven in the second, and five again in the third.

The poem should take place in the present. Finally, there must be some reference—either directly or indirectly—to a season of the year.

FAMILY SUPPER SUNDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

A family pot luck supper will be held Sunday, May 2, at the Bethel United Methodist Church, beginning at 5 o'clock. Those attending, if not solicited, are asked to furnish a salad or hot dish. Immediately following the meal a meeting of the official board will be convened. Church families and friends are invited to attend.

HAS OWN PASTORATE — Randall Christen has been appointed Pastor of North Brewer-Eddington United Methodist Church effective as of May 9. He is a 1965 graduate of Gould Academy and a 1969 graduate of University of Maine, Orono. He expects to complete the second year of a three year Master of Divinity Program at Bangor Theological Seminary in mid May. He and his wife, the former Carolyn Melville, and their two sons, Jeremy and Jeffrey, will move to 1259 North Main Street, in Brewer this week.

PERHAM TO SPEAK TO WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOC. ON SATURDAY, MAY 8

The speaker at the Saturday, May 8, meeting of the Woodstock Historical Society will be Joe Perham. He will address the group on "Mollycoddle—History and Legend." The presentation will be a compendium of history, legend, humor, folklore, and music. Mr. Perham says he is indebted to Cathy Newell of Bethel and Helen Leadbetter of Fryeburg for much of the research behind the program.

Mr. Perham is widely known throughout the area as a speaker and raconteur and a number of people have expressed an interest in hearing him on this particular subject. It should be an interesting evening. Also, a brief session of the Board of Trustees will be held at six o'clock preceding the regularly scheduled meeting.

solid waste committee was also approved by the Selectmen. The Committee will be responsible for the following: 1. review the short and long range solid waste needs for Bethel and other towns serviced by the present landfill site; 2. review alternative solid waste disposal systems; 3. review administration and funding alternatives for each system, and 4. prepare and submit comprehensive recommendations.

A potential traffic hazard situation at the intersection of the Flat Road and Route Two in West Bethel was discussed. The recommendation to place barrels with reflecting tape at the intersection was supported by the Board until a more permanent solution can be provided.

not come visibly nor will people say—Here it is—there it is, because the kingdom of God is within you." Luke 17:20, 21.

A person changed from a sinner to a forgiven sinner has had the experience of receiving Christ as the Lord of their life and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Reading Hebrews will bring much light on the subject of the Holy Spirit. Chapter 2, verse 10—"In bringing many sons to glory it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the author of their salvation (Jesus) perfect through suffering (on the cross) vs. 11—"Both the one who makes men holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers."

As we begin to see that it is the Holy Spirit of God that transforms lives—"Today if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts"—Hebrews 3:7-4:1, 15—as he spoke years ago to David—Psalms 58:3.

Today is the day—if you haven't already—to make the decision of accepting Christ as Lord of Your life.

Nine people attended the meeting at the Town Hall Wednesday evening, April 21, concerning the responder unit to serve Greenwood while waiting for the ambulance to arrive. Representatives and SMT's from both Bethel and Tri Town were present. It was explained that this was to be a supplement to existing care and not way intended to be in competition with or separate from the ambulance service already in the area. Raymond W. Seames has a pick up truck equipped with all the supplies needed to qualify for an ambulance vehicle and it is presently housed at the fire station. All that's needed is personnel willing and qualified to respond to a call in Greenwood, to give the necessary preliminary treatment and/or work up of the patient, for the purpose of having the patient ready for transport when the ambulance arrives. This is expected to provide needed support to the family of the patient and, in cases of life threatening situations, to provide as fast emergency care as possible. If you are interested in helping with this, either as a first responder or behind the scenes support such as providing child care, please contact Raymond W. Seames or Diane Howe.

The Oxford Union Association's Annual Meeting was held at the Bethel Congregational Church, Sunday, April 25. A business meeting was held with election of officers. Keynote speakers were Charles Chase and Mark Schussler, executive director and assistant director, Oxford County Community Services. Douglass Trotter spoke on those less fortunate in Oxford County. He will be heading a retreat in May at Sunday River Inn, which will concern itself with the social problems and their solutions, which are found in this area. Delegates from the Union Church were Marlon Parker and Margery Swan.

Raymond Clemens will be guest speaker at the Union Church this week.

A great many friends and relatives of Mrs. Cora Bennett attended her services at the church Saturday afternoon.

Richard Cross is closing in the back porch for his aunt, Mrs. Lillian Lapham.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mills visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith in Dryden Friday. They all enjoyed shopping and supper at an area restaurant.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Yes, our friends and neighbors who thought they briefly saw my ugly face on television last week as one of the plaintiffs in the lawsuit to have the State's deal with Bath Iron Works declared unconstitutional were correct. I was there, as a plaintiff.

I think highly of Bath Iron Works. I believe we Maine voters and taxpayers have a perfect right to be proud of BIW's record of building ships under budget and ahead of schedule. BIW has earned esteem for the size of its work force, for its contribution to the Maine economy and for the handsome profit it returns to its owners.

But an outright gift of $19.6 million of Maine taxpayers' dollars to a private corporation—$35 million, when interest payable over 20 years is included—is hardly a proper way to express that esteem. And consequently, when I learned that the $35 million was scheduled to be handed to BIW as a gift with no provision for repayment—in contravention of the provisions of the referendum question approved last November, which mandated "sale or lease" but not gifts—I felt it time to stand up and be counted.

I have every confidence that the courts will declare the State/BIW deal unconstitutional as an improper use of public funds. I am equally confident that BIW will have no trouble borrowing such funds as it may need for its expansion, at interest rates equal to, or better than, those which other borrowers in Maine must pay. BIW does not stand in need of charity.

Donald B. Eddy

To the Editor:
On behalf of the S.A.D. 44 Adult and Community Education Advisory Council, I would like to extend an invitation to all members of the S.A.D. 44 community and their families to attend the Learning Fair to be held at Telstar High School on Tuesday, May 11. The Fair has become a traditional way to conclude the "learning season" for the S.A.D. 44 program, and on May 11 the Gym will be turned over to exhibits and demonstrations from many of the courses offered this term. In addition several community groups have been invited to participate. The atmosphere is informal, and many exhibits offer visitors a chance to participate in new experiences. The Fair will also feature the spring concert by the S.A.D. 44 Adult and Community Education Chorus, in the auditorium at 8. The chorus will perform a challenging selection of musical pieces, under the direction of Susan Mitchell. A pot luck supper in the cafeteria will precede the Fair, with those attending asked to bring a hot dish, salad or dessert. The evening promises to be a fitting conclusion to a busy year for the S.A.D. 44 Adult and Community Education program, which was centered around the theme "Learning Together".

Sincerely,
Catherine Newell
Director of Adult and Community Education

FRYBURG SENIOR CITIZENS

HEAR OF RSVP VOLUNTEERS

Fryburg Senior Citizens met Wednesday, April 21, at the American Legion Hall in Fryburg.

Just before the opening of the meeting, everyone sang "Happy Birthday" to Nellie Hill, President of the Fryburg Senior Citizens, who celebrated her 79th birthday on April 24.

It was "National Volunteer Week" and the theme of the invocation, given by Beatrice Hardcastle, was "Living Productively".

JoAnne Walters, Area Coordinator of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program of Oxford County, was invited by Nellie Hill, president, to speak to the group.

Walters spoke on the local non-profit organizations which needed volunteers and showed a RSVP recruiting film. When Walters mentioned the nursing homes in the area, one member said that she thought they had plenty of volunteers. This touched off two very eloquent pleas by Ann Robbins, Activities Director of Fryburg Health Care Center, and Heidi Fisher, Activities Director of Hick's Nursing Home. Both directors emphasized the many needs for volunteers at their respective nursing homes.

"There is a misconception here," stated Ann Robbins, "because a large church group may come on a Sunday, that we have all the volunteers we need. But, what about the rest of the week?"

Heidi Fisher added, "We, the staff, and volunteers are the only 'family' that many residents have. The residents really look forward to volunteer visits. Volunteers bring a lot of happiness to residents, which they, the volunteers, may not be aware of, but the staff sees the beneficial results of these visits."

Both the Fryburg Health Care Center and the Hick's Nursing Home will be new RSVP Volunteer Stations.

Nellie Hill, President of Fryburg Senior Citizens, Lucia Lewis, Secretary-Treasurer, and Beatrice Hardcastle have joined RSVP and will be volunteering at the nursing homes.

"This has been the most productive speaking engagement that I ever had," said Walters. "I attribute this to the warmth of the Fryburg Senior Citizens, and the spontaneous pleas from Ann Robbins and Heidi Fisher."

RSVP is sponsored by ACTION, federally, and by Western Older Citizens Council, locally. At the present time, there are 400 RSVP volunteers in the tri-county area (Androscoggin, Franklin and Oxford) who volunteer between 4,000 and 5,000 hours each month.

JoAnne Walters, Oxford County RSVP Area Coordinator, can be reached at her Norway office, 249 Main Street at 743-9033, if a non-profit organization needs volunteers or if anyone would like to join RSVP.

Safety Tip of the Week — When taking medicine prescribed by your doctor. Don't take home remedies also—they may act against each other—therefore neither one will do the job they were intended to do.

CARD OF APPRECIATION — The family of Angelo Onofrio takes this opportunity to thank each and every one of you who helped us in so many ways during our great sorrow. A special thank you to Dr. Medd, Hospital staff, Father Proulx, Reverend Cummings, my sisters Margaret and Dora, to B.E.A.R.S. for their quick response when needed. The food, telephone calls, letters, cards and prayers were very much appreciated. We all send our love. God Bless.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY MEET

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 30

There will be a special meeting of Mundt-Allen Post Legion and Auxiliary members Friday evening, April 30 at 7:30 at the hall to work out a plan to organize workers for the Thursday night games.

For the past several years a half dozen or so people have successfully kept the Post in operation financially by dedicating their time every Thursday evening.

Let's face it, these games are the main source of the Legion finances. The money for oil, electricity, phone, insurance, snow removal, maintenance of the hall, plus donations, etc. comes from the games Thursday evening. Except for a few auctions and hall rentals. Members do not get donations; members are the ones who donate. In the winter months a monthly bill of $400 for hall upkeep is quite common.

In explanation, the games now are not what they used to be. No more pounds of sugar, or tea, or an occasional blanket. All prizes are paid by check and on an average night $400 will be given away. Multiply this by 50 weeks that the games are played and you have quite a hefty sum that will be won by the players.

The responsibility for all this should be shared by all Legion and Auxiliary members that are physically capable of working.

With a Legion membership of 120 plus and an Auxiliary membership of 90 plus it seems that all the work should not be borne by a few dedicated members.

An arrangement can be worked out so a person should not have

So why don't all members come to the April 30 meeting. There will be a social hour and the entire time will be devoted to working on a format for the conducting of the games. Those who can't come will be contacted personally if it is felt they are capable and willing to help.

Remember, each and every member, this is your Post you not only belong to it, you own it, so why not help support it.

M. S. A. D. #44 Superintendent's Newsletter

Dr. Wayne F. Gersen

One of the goals of the Board of Directors for FY '82 is to examine alternative methods of delivering vocational education services to the students in S.A.D. 44. This goal was set to remedy one of the least cost effective investments of the school district's dollars; the $49,600 tuition for 11 trade program placements and 16 cooperative education program placements in the Northern Oxford Vocational Area (NOVA) program.

In the current vocational education program, a Telstar junior or senior can sign up for vocational education courses in metal trades, building trades, health occupations, forestry, or cooperative education. The courses are organized in a two year sequence with the first level completed in the junior year and the second level in the senior year. Using a formula determined by secondary enrollment, S.A.D. 44 is allocated a total of 81 placements in the trade program, and 16 placements in the cooperative education program. As noted above, during the current year, S.A.D. 44 filled only 11 of their trade placements, while successfully filling all available co-op placements.

In order to determine why S.A.D. 44 had such low participation in NOVA, an extensive survey, involving all students in grades 8 through 12, was completed. The results of this survey indicate that the primary reasons that students were not attending were: a general lack of interest in the offerings provided by NOVA; the relatively stiff graduation requirements at Telstar Regional High School; the fact that NOVA participation commits students to two semesters off campus; and, the extensive travel that is necessary to attend NOVA classes.

In exploring alternatives to the NOVA program, the administrators are looking into two options: joining Region #11, centered in South Paris, or forming our own vocational center at Telstar. Of the two options, forming our own vocational area appears to be the most attractive. The initial costs for implementing our own vocational program, which would serve 46 students, would be approximately $67,000. For this cost, S.A.D. 44 would be able to offer vocational courses in welding, woodlands management, business education, and cooperative education. This fee would also provide tuition costs for students to attend health occupations and buildings in the NOVA program. Since these offerings would be on campus, the S.A.D. 44 administration feels that it will be able to fill all 46 positions. Thus, offering vocational education on-site would result in greater cost-effectiveness. Where we are currently paying $49,600 to provide vocational learning opportunities for 27 students, we would be able to provide vocational learning opportunities for 46 students at Telstar for $67,000. The cost under the Telstar vocational program would be $1,457 per student, as compared to the current cost of $1,837 per student. Furthermore, after the initial year, vocational costs per student will drop in S.A.D. 44 since nearly $7,000 of the first year expense would be start-up costs. This fact, taken together with NOVA's long-range expansion plans makes the alternative to withdraw from NOVA and provide our own vocational education here even more attractive. Indeed, if the NOVA expansion plans are approved in their most minimal format, the cost to S.A.D. 44, exclusive of the construction, would be over $80,000 or very close to S.A.D. 44's proposed first year cost for its own vocational program.

FOREST SERVICE ASKS FOR HELP WITH NATIONAL FOREST PLAN

Beginning May 1, you will have the opportunity to help the Forest Service plan for the future of the White Mountain National Forest.

Located in northern New Hampshire and Maine, the White Mountain National Forest contains 750,000 acres including favorite areas such as Mount Washington, Tuckerman Ravine, the Kancamagus Highway, Evans Notch, and Mount Chocoma.

The Forest Service has developed a small package of materials for public comment that will help it put together a plan to care of the Forest for the long-term future.

Examples of some of the decisions that will be made include: Will there be more alpine ski areas? How much and where will timber harvesting be allowed? How much and where will snowmobiling be allowed? What types of outdoor recreation will be emphasized?

"New England people have always been involved in caring for the White Mountain National Forest," Jim Jordan, White Mountain Forest Supervisor, said, "and their comments about its future are extremely valuable."

"Involvement in this planning process will give them an opportunity to find out how their public lands are managed and to share in deciding how they will be managed in the future."

If you are interested in commenting on the plan for the National Forest, you can get a copy by calling the Forest Headquarters in Laconia at 603/524-6450 or by writing Plans, White Mountain National Forest, P. O. Box 638, Laconia, N. H., 03246. Include your name and address.

The deadline for comments is June 15.

program is an elaborate process. Our district must develop a plan that indicates that we can offer our students a vocational education opportunity comparable to the NOVA program. The local alternative plan would initially be adopted by the S.A.D. 44 Board of Directors, then submitted to the NOVA Cooperative Board. Following public hearings in Bethel and Rumford, conducted by NOVA, the plan would then be submitted to the State Board of Education. Then, a team of vocational administrators from the State Department of Education would conduct an on-site analysis of the S.A.D. 44 vocational education plan, to determine the impact of S.A.D. 44's withdrawal on the entire region, and determine if the plan conceived by the district is comparable to NOVA's program. The team's findings would then be reported to the State Board of Education, who determines if the alternative plan submitted by the unit seeking withdrawal is acceptable. Finally, following the decision by the State Board, a referendum would be conducted in S.A.D. 44 to determine if the district wishes to proceed with the withdrawal. A 2/3 vote is required to effect the withdrawal from NOVA.

At this point, a detailed alternative plan is being developed for submission to the S.A.D. 44 Board of Directors for their May 24 meeting. If the comprehensive plan is adopted by the S.A.D. 44 Board, the entire process of approval will take approximately six months, with the new vocational education plan to go into effect with the 1983-1984 school year at the earliest. In developing an alternative vocational education program, the Board is using cost effectiveness, and not cost, as the criteria. Your reaction to this concept is encouraged. Please share your thoughts with Board members or administrators in the coming weeks.

Your life can be judged only by what you do, not by what you say you intend to do.

OXFORD COUNTY LEAGUE OF HISTORICAL SOCIETIES MET APRIL 23

An organizational meeting of the newly-formed Oxford County League of Historical Societies was held in Oxford at the American Legion Hall April 23 with nearly 100 persons present representing over a dozen historical organizations in Oxford County. Stanley R. Howe, Director of the Bethel Historical Society was selected as the League's first president, Ben Conant of Paris Cape Society as vice-president, and Mildred Dickson of the Dixfield Society as secretary-treasurer.

The business meeting was large, confined to procedural issues and the hope was expressed that all historical organizations in the county would eventually join. The purpose of the organization is to coordinate the work of the historical societies of Oxford County so that they may better serve the cause of local history in their specific areas of concern by sharing technical information and ideas to promote interest in membership and preservation of the area's heritage.

Each society that chooses to join will have one delegate and alternate who will cast that organization's one vote in the Council which will govern the County organization. However, each person who is a member of one of the participating organizations will also belong to the League and is cordially invited to attend its meetings.

Robert Smith of Smithway Studios in Norway who has a national reputation in enlarging and printing old photographs for historical societies and museums throughout the country was the featured speaker, calling attention to the varieties of old photographs and how to preserve and use them in exhibits.

The next meeting will be in July at Sumner and the League will be the guests of the Sumner Historical Society.

The first use of the prevailing wage concept (paying workers what the going rate is for the area) was for federal Navy yard workers in 1862, according to a publication of the U. S. Department of Labor, "Labor Firsts in America."

CLINIC AND OPEN HOUSE AT RUMFORD HOSPITAL MAY 8

As part of National Hospital Week Observance, Rumford Community Hospital will hold a Hearing Clinic on May 8 from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., and an Open House from 1-3 p. m. on the same date.

The clinic will be staffed by audiologists from Central Maine Medical Center's Speech and Hearing Center, and is available free of charge to all adults and children in the RCH service area. Results of the screening procedure on school children will be forwarded to the appropriate school nurse. On request, individual test results will be forwarded to private physicians. According to Franklin R. Barclay, hospital public relations director, "The hospital has provided a free hearing clinic to area residents since 1979. We here at RCH feel that Hospital Week affords an excellent opportunity to pursue our commitment to improve the future health of our community. RCH devotes its full resources to providing the best possible health care to residents of our service area. We invite you to avail yourselves of this service, and to attend the hearing clinic on May 8."

In response to requests for an Open House similar to the one staged in early February, RCH will open its doors to the public on Saturday, May 8, from 1-3 p. m. The Open House is planned for the same afternoon as the Hearing Clinic and will allow visitors a chance to see first-hand renovations and equipment which were financed in part by proceeds from the last several hospital fairs. On the agenda will be tours through some areas visitors don't normally see, such as the operating rooms, laboratories, radiology, and (conditions permitting) obstetrical unit and birthing room. In addition the pediatric suite will be open for visitors, and there will be an emergency display available complete with an ambulance ready for inspection. Also on hand will be a film on the infant car seat program.

The message of National Hospital Week 1982, is you can count your hospital among your friends. According to Barclay, "We here at RCH have a simple basic mission—to care, offer support and help, and be there when needed. Please stop by the hospital on May 8 and learn first-hand, You've Got a Friend at RCH."
